

strong, responsive, effective advocacy

“Recognizing that the colleges and universities of Texas exist for the benefit of the students of these institutions and the people who support them, and believing that the people of Texas want, and should have, the best education system for higher education in the nation, we herewith dedicate ourselves to the development of a program designed to assist all like-minded persons and groups in attaining excellence in higher education in Texas. We therefore pledge ourselves to strive for the highest personal standards of teaching, scholarship, and research.”

TACT Bylaws

The Texas Association of College Teachers has been serving the needs of university professors, staff and librarians in Texas since 1948. TACT’s legacy includes networking among colleges on issues of academic freedom, statistical research, tenure implementation and protection, professional standards, working conditions and legislative advocacy.

We invite you to join our association to take a stand for your career and let your voice be heard beyond your classroom. Become an active member of an association rich in history that focuses on you-the university professor-and your career dedicated to the students of Texas.

Join today for $158!

Membership Benefits

All memberships to TACT include Educators Professional Liability Insurance (EPLI). Receive up to $2 million in coverage plus legal fees for damages.

We receive calls throughout the year from concerned professors about student claims that can ruin one’s career and live savings. Protect yourself with EPLI.

TACT keeps a pulse on all agencies that affect faculty members to ensure your interests are represented.

We keep you informed through the e-mailed First Alerts, which provide you with same-day developments on public policy issues and how they affect you.

The Quarterly eBulletin newsletter highlights association news in the profession. Members are encouraged to contribute articles.

We represent you at the Capitol.

Our core focus is on university faculty issues in Texas. We lobby on behalf of our members, with a legislative agenda of top priority concerns developed by members. We understand the issues you face in your career - being a member of TACT lets you be part of the solution.
